Five Back-to-School Tips for Parents

Here are some tips that may be useful for helping parents and their children transition from summer vacation to the school year.

1. Start to develop a bedtime/wakeup routine with your children before school starts.
2. Set up a quiet, dedicated space at home for your children to complete their homework.
3. Have a weekly to-do list and/or a family calendar.
4. Meet the new teachers.
5. Talk to your children about their experiences at school and be a resource for them.

Five Things to Know About Depositions

Depositions play an important role in litigation. Parties to civil cases routinely engage in the discovery process before settling a case or going to trial. Discovery involves the exchange of information and evidence between the parties to allow each party to prepare for trial. A deposition is one of the most common types of discovery that a civil litigation attorney may use. Read More

Assistance Dog Day is August 4th

Assistance dogs include guide, hearing, and service dogs who are trained to perform one or more tasks to make life more accessible for individuals with disabilities. Assistance Dog Day not only celebrates the loyalty and hard work of the assistance dogs themselves, but also that of their devoted dog trainers.

Farmworker Appreciation Day is August 6th

Farmworker Appreciation Day is about honoring hardworking farmworkers everywhere who endure extreme physical labor to consistently deliver fresh produce to our grocery stores and farmers markets. Their sacrifice and hard work allow us all to conveniently purchase fresh fruits and vegetables at low prices.

August 19th is World Photography Day

World Photography Day is an unofficial holiday that is dedicated to celebrating the art of photography. Photography allows photographers to convey an experience to others through imagery. Whether you are a photographer or you simply like to look at photos, photography plays an important role in all our lives.
