As we commemorate the sixth anniversary of the 2017 North Bay Fires, let's reflect on our journey and the strength that has carried us through. It's a testament to the enduring spirit and determination of our community.

Surviving the 2017 Tubbs Fire

The year 2017 marked a turning point in my family's life in my hometown of Santa Rosa, California. It was the year I had just graduated from college, and I was in my first semester of graduate school in San Francisco. It also became the year that I lost my childhood home and the year I almost lost my father... Read More

With love from Santa Rosa to Lahaina

By Noreen Evans

I'm a survivor of the 2017 wildfires in Santa Rosa, CA.

My home was less than a mile from the fire and my office was in the middle of the burn zone... Read More

Caring for Ourselves & Others This October

"I am not what happened to me, I am what I choose to become."
— Carl Jung

"The richness, beauty and depths of love can only be fully experienced in a climate of complete openness, honesty, and vulnerability"
— Anthony Venn Brown

"More than 10 million Americans are living with cancer, and they demonstrate the ever-increasing possibility of living beyond cancer."
 — Sheryl Crow

"Everybody is a genius. But if you judge a fish by its ability to climb a tree, it will live its whole life believing that it is stupid."
 — Albert Einstein
