

Maui fire litigation update

July 19, 2024

Recent articles published by Bloomberg News and other media outlets today incorrectly announced that a global settlement has been reached in the Maui Fires. These reports are not accurate. The mediation participants are subject to strict confidentiality. If and when the mediation process is completed, we will absolutely let our clients know! In the interim, our firm—and many others—continue to prepare for the upcoming November trial. And we continue to support efforts to reach a fair and just global resolution of all claims so that victims of this tragedy receive the resources needed to rebuild their lives and so that Lahaina and the Island of Maui can recover as quickly as possible.

Our legal team is continuing the process of gathering documentation from our clients to support their claims for damages.
